Gauntlet Private Investments Invests in $25,000 Capital Advance for Mid-Sized Metal Manufacturing Company

SPRUCE PINE, N.C. – Gauntlet Private Investment (GPI), a real estate-focused private equity firm, announced today that it has invested in a $25,000 capital advance for a mid-sized metal manufacturing company in Spruce Pine, N.C.

Gauntlet Private Investments was able to purchase future receivables at a discount in order to help the company generate short-term cash flow. The closing is significant as it marks the beginning of a foray into receivable and revenue advances for the investment firm.

“We’re committed to helping small businesses across the U.S. meet their short-term capital needs,” said Michael Clinton, founder of Gauntlet Private Investments. “Our firm is well positioned and capitalized to help businesses with liquidity issues.”

Gauntlet Private Investments’ unique approach to underwriting enables the firm to approve businesses for funding that would not typically qualify with banks or other lenders. To be considered, businesses must have a sound track record, story and exit strategy. Transactions range from five thousand to fifty thousand dollars.

Founded in 2008, Gauntlet Private Investments is an investment banking firm focused primarily on the acquisition of commercial real estate assets, developments and new ventures. Secondly, the firm provides best in class financial structures for challenging projects that require extensive experience, superior resources and a highly customized approach.

The firm, whose motto is "Meeting Capital Challenges, Daily," has completed or provided in excess of $100 million dollars in capital investment with substantially higher aggregate transaction value. The firm was formerly known as Gauntlet Commercial Real Estate Capital and changed names when it changed directions to include private equity investments alongside providing bridge loans for commercial assets.

Gauntlet Private Investments is headquartered in Los Angeles. For more information, please call (213) 223-6343 or visit www.gauntletpi.com.
